SUCCESS SUMMARIZED

During the past eight weeks the Alies have almost cleared the enemy held territory between the Nisne and the Marne in the great triangle which had been driven as iar south as Chateau Thierry, with Soissons and Rheims as the anchor points, while from Soissons to Arras the old bulge westward to Montdidier and towards the doorstep of Amiens is almost obliterated. The Allies are now on the Hindenburg line in Flanelers, while the salients which threatened the Channel Ports have now been bent eastward. The enemy has been expelled from all the vantage points they expected to use in a renewal of their drives to gain the seaboard. The vantage points are now in the hands of the Allies and with a return of good weather the drive eastward should be resumed, with every prospect of rapid advance once the Hindenburg defenses have been pierced.
